Less Stress

Don't sweat the details.
We do.

The StellCo team is well-versed in industry trade shows of all kinds. We have produced events for government entities, financial services, clothing and sporting apparel designers, food distribution chains, large scale sporting contests and other entities.

Our executive leadership draws on decades of experience, staging thousands of expo and conference events across the United States and worldwide.

Confidence

20 Years of Experience

While no two events are identical, we have a repeatable and scalable process for planning, and producing tradeshow setups.

Base packages include (but are not limited to) brand signage packages, tenting/structural elements, temporary walls and scenic design, furnishing decor, audio/video and technology integrations.

We work with clients to identify improvements that attract and enhance the attendees experience.
